FRANCISCO VILLA SURRENDERS

Terror of Mexico Makes Peace With the New Government.

By the Associated Press
EAGLE PASS, Tex., July 28.—Francisco Villa, bandit leader, surrendered unconditionally after an all night conference with General Martinez, commanding the Torreon military zone, according to advices received by the Mexican consul here today.

Villa will return to private life, the message added. Much rejoicing throughout Mexico is reported, with celebrations being arranged.

Carl Heglin, American president of a brewery at Sabes, who had been held by Villa for ransom, has been released, the report added.

What the terms of Villa's surrender were, aside from the one calling for his return to private life, were unknown here today.

By the Associated Press
MEXICO CITY, July 28.—Cordial telegrams were exchanged yesterday between Francisco Villa and General Martinez, chief of operations in the states of Coahuila, and Nuevo Leon, who is arranging surrender terms with the rebel leaders, according to advices received here from Torreon.

Addressing Villa as "Esteemed General," Martinez telegraphed him from Torreon that he would arrive in Sabes for a conference and would leave nothing undone to render Villa and his followers elements of Mexican progress. Martinez concluded, "embracing you fraternaly." Villa replied, among other things, that he awaited to embrace him with all his heart. Villa signed himself, "Your friend."

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 28.—Representatives described today at the state department as of an "urgent nature," have been made to the Mexican government, as a result of the capturing of Carl Haeglin, an American citizen, by Francisco Villa, several days ago.

The Mexican authorities have been asked through the American embassy at Mexico City to take all steps possible to affect the release of the prisoner, who was taken from Sabes and is reported to be held for ransom.

Reports to the state department today said Mexican forces were moving northward toward Sabes, and that all the infantry troops to the north had been held in readiness to cooperate in a movement calculated to capture Villa.

VICTOR BERGER AGAIN
CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

By the Associated Press
MILWAUKEE, July 28.—Victor Berger, who was twice refused a seat in congress, is again a candidate for the Fifth Wisconsin District. He will be opposed by a republican.

Successful Box
Supper at Knox
Last Evening

A box supper at Knox schoolhouse last night was attended by an unusually large number of people living in that part of the country. The purpose of the supper was to raise money to pay for new seats for the school building. $45.00 was realized from the sale of boxes.

Quite a number of county candidates attended the meeting and made speeches in the interest of their candidacies. A feature of the evening's entertainment was the presence of the Seybold orchestra from Ada, which furnished music highly enjoyed by the audience. The expenses of the orchestra were paid by the following candidates: J. I. Laughlin, John Flowers, Tal Crawford, Bob Duncan, Rit Erwin, Nick Heard, Jessie Rogers, Luther Franklin, Barney Selfridge and Jessie M. Bell.

THE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE
LEADERS DENIED NEW TRIAL

FAIRMONT, Minn., July 28.—A. C. Townley, president of the non-partisan league, and Joseph Gilbert, formerly league organizer, today were denied a new trial on charges of conspiring to encourage disloyalty during the war. They are under a 20 day jail sentence.

COX DICTATES HIS ADDRESS OF ACCEPTANCE

By the Associated Press
DAYTON, July 28.—An all day stretch dictating to his secretary, his address for August 7th, accepting the democratic presidential nomination, was the exclusive but formidable affair before Governor Cox today. It was the first day since his nomination that this engagement list was blank, and he planned to make the most of the opportunity to work uninterrupted on the acceptance speech.

While some of his main subjects like the league of nations, industrial affairs and others are patent, Governor is keeping close council regarding their details.

CROPS ARE STILL PROGRESSING

In Spite of Hot Weather
According to the Officials.

By the Associated Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 28.—In spite of hot and dry weather, with the maximum temperature ranging from 90 to 105 degrees, crops generally made satisfactory progress in Oklahoma during the week ending July 27th, according to the summary of weather and crop conditions for that week, issued today by the United States Weather Bureau here.

"It was ideal weather for threshing. Wheat and oats made rapid progress," says the report. Both grains are generally showing satisfactory yield per acre and the grains are of good quality.

Cotton generally made excellent progress and the condition of the crop is steadily improving. Weevil and boll worms are still reported in various localities, but are not very numerous or active.

"The corn crop generally," continued the report, "made very good progress toward maturity and wasn't materially injured by the heat of last week.

Grain, sorghum, broom corn and other minor crops made good progress, but are needing rain now in the northwest and southwest countries.

The logan berry was first produced in 1881.

Ada Ball Club To Play Gunter Three Game Series

This afternoon at 1:15 the Ada ball club left over the Frisco for Gunter, Texas, where they will play the club of that city a three game series Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Manager Jim Coteman stated this morning that he had the best aggregation of ball players that has yet been on the Ada club this season and was going into the Lone Star state with the expectation of scalping the Longhorns proper.

A special Pullman will leave this city Thursday night and will return Friday night. Those who care to go with this crowd can see Joe Cole and make reservations. This will give those who make the trip Thursday night a chance to sleep as long as they wish Friday morning.

Here is the lineup for the three days:

Thursday—McAnally, 3b; Waner, ss; Robinson, cf; Rutledge, 1b; Strain, rf; MacMillan, If; Beavers, 2b; Stagner, c; Morgan, p.

Friday—McAnally, 3b; Waner, ss; Robinson, cf; Rutledge, 1b; Morgan, rf; MacMillan, If; Beavers, 2b; Strain, c; Sigler, p.

Saturday—Roach, 3b; Waner, ss; Robinson, cf; Rutledge, 1b; Morgan, rf; MacMillan, If; Beavers, 2b; Stagner, c; Ikard, p.

PONTOTOC COUNTY WEIGHER HAS UP-TO-DATE SCALES

John Ward, Pontotoc county weigher, has recently installed an up-to-date pair of scales at the weighing station on North Broadway. The new scales are the straight type registering beam. In weighing a load, the scales are balanced, a ticket is inserted in a slot and the weight is printed on the ticket. This prevents errors in reading.

The scales were installed at a cost of $800 to the weigher. Mr. Ward states that they will give much better satisfaction to the public. They register correctly and will weigh anything up to 20,000 pounds.

POLISH RETREATING ON ENTIRE FRONT

By the Associated Press
WARSAW, July 27.—The Polish retreat continues along the entire front according to the latest news on the fighting operations received here.

Reports from various sources indicate that the Bolsheviks intend to occupy Eulki, 50 miles north of Graudino and Dailystok, 43 miles from Graudino, before the beginning of the armistice negotiations, set for Friday. The Bolsheviks are now within 10 miles of Dailystok.

PARIS PRESS GRATIFIED AT CONFERENCE

By the Associated Press
PARIS, July 28.—The Paris press is gratified over the result of the Bologne conference. Most of the newspapers unite in considering the outcome "a feather in Millerand's cap," pointing out that he persuaded Lloyd George to adopt the French views on the Russian and coal questions.

"The feather concluded at Spa," says Pertinax, political editor of the Echo de Paris, "remains to blame, but now there is a light on the horizon and if the reparation commission knows how to play the part assigned, the blunders of a fortnight ago will be reduced to the dimensions of a temporary mistake."

Woman Committed To State Hospital For Treatment

Mrs. Mary Lackey was taken to the state hospital at Norman yesterday by Sheriff Duncan. The county lunacy commission after a careful examination pronounced Mrs. Lackey mentally deranged and recommended that she be sent to the state hospital for treatment. Mrs. Lackey was arrested at Caddo the first of the week on a charge of bigamy alleged to have been committed in this county. Upon being brought back to Ada, it was seen that the woman is somewhat unbalanced and she was sent to Norman yesterday.

TRUNK MYSTERY BEGINS TO GRADUALLY UNRAVEL

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, July 28—Leo Trumbull, wife of a Detroit police, today at the Bellevue morgue, identified the body of the young woman found in a trunk in the American Railway Express Company's warehouse, here last week, as that of Mrs. Eugene LeRoy.

OLD HOTEL BUILDING ON MAIN BEING TORN DOWN

The old hotel building on 216 West Main is being torn down. It is one of the old wooden structures marking an earlier day. It used to be the White Elephant hotel and was for a long time the Frisco hotel.

The owner of the property, C. W. Dunkey, does not at present have any plans perfected for the erection of a new building. However, it is entirely probable some sort of modern structure will be put on the site in the near future.

DECLARER HE IS NOT EX-CONVICT

Man Held by Cleveland Police Says
He Did Not Escape in 1905 but Photograph Is Identified

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—Stoutly maintaining his innocence of the charge that he is Robert L. Dix, who escaped from the Birmingham, Ala., jail in 1905, three days before he was to have been hanged, James H. George, a barber arrested here a few days ago, asked that his photograph be sent to Birmingham for identification.

Word came today the photograph had been identified by old residents and elevators and in points of large accumulation, all showed an increase over 1919 totals this year of 47,756 bushels against 19,261 bushels in 1919. The figures perhaps reflecting disturbed transportation conditions during the past year.

More Wheat Than
Carter Had Oats

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 28.—Wheat from last year's crop carried into 1920 totaled 109,318,000 bushels of the 1918 crop on hand the corresponding day last year, said an announcement today by the department of agriculture.

It is said Bolsheviks papers roundly denounced this, saying this would bring nearer to them diplomatic relations with the soviet.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS ALWAYS IN DEMAND

The great demand for Douglas Fairbanks-Artcraft pictures keeps the energetic star very active at all times. In order to handle his productions in the quickest and most efficient manner, the actor-producer has surrounded himself with a unique organization that has a working plan all of its own. The system, created by Douglas himself, makes it possible for his company to turn out twice as much work as under ordinary conditions. The various department heads of this company are Anita Loos, scenario chief; John Emerson, director general; Victor Fleming, head photographer, and John Fairbanks, brother of the star, general manager. The co-operative scheme of photoplay production used by this company calls upon every member of the organization to advance ideas even if they are not in direct line with their personal duties and results in the fact that each Fairbanks picture is greater than the last. At the head of the entire organization and in touch with all details pertaining to its workings is the tireless Douglas himself—the mastermind behind every branch of the company.

MULE STAMPEDES IN MINE: TWO ARE HURT

DEWAR, Okla.—Excitement held full sway for a while yesterday in the Dewar Coal company's mine here and as a result the mine is closed today. A mule taken into the mine became excited and stampeded, miners scampering to shelter as the animal charged back and forth in the shaft. James Steinhouse suffered a broken arm when the mule kicked him and another man was bruised by the flying hoofs.

BRITISH BEAT U. S. IN SHIP BUILDING

LONDON.—Total tonnage now building in the United Kingdom exceeds in amount under construction in the United States by 1,672,000 tons according to returns published today by Lloyd's register of shipping. The aggregate amount now under construction in Great Britain 3,578,000 tons, the highest amount ever recorded.

"SHUFFLIN' PHIL" CAN SHUFFLE NOW TO MINOR LEAGUES

Phil Douglas.

"Shufflin' Phil" Douglass, erratic pitcher of the New York Giants, has done his last dance at McGraw's expense. That's the dope out of New York town. McGraw slapped a suspension on Douglas the other day when he failed to join his team mates on their departure for the west.

McGraw would have suspended him sooner but for the plans of some of his team mates.

"When he is in shape, he is there," National League fans have always said of Douglas. He has shown flashes of being a great hurler with two or three clubs, but the spirit of wanderlust at critical times has ruined his career. He left the Giants last year without notice, but finally made up with McGraw. On his promise to be a good boy, McGraw kept him this year and was counting on him to take his place with Toney, Nehf, Barnes and Benton.

Douglas had failed to live up to expectations, however, having won only five or six games and losing about the same number, but he was getting better. His caper leaves the Giants with but two dependable pitchers, Toney and Nehf, and practically knocks in the head the hope McGraw had for making a fall drive.

All are equipped with American boots. They have demonstrated their ability to hold their own with the men soldiers, even in trench fighting.

McSwain Theatre Shows Good Picture On Last Evening

"Blind Husbands," a special Jewish attraction and Stroheim's wonder play was shown to the patrons of this popular playhouse last evening.

The play was in eight reels and portrayed the life of a famous American surgeon who was taking a well-earned vacation in the Alps mountains of Switzerland. He was conscious of many things, yet he was "blind" in one respect. His splendid little wife was being neglected, not that she did not have plenty of worldly possessions, but she was neglected with one essential that money cannot buy—true love.

Zess, a guide of the Alps, sees that the home is not as it should be, and after many dramatic situations the play concludes by showing how this lonely peasant of the hills points the way to a real home, and one of happiness.

Throughout the program the McSwain orchestra played the pictures, which added much to this feature program. It can be said in truth that this playhouse is one of quality and character.

Gothan Isn't So Wise
NEW YORK.—"Smart-Alec New York" is really illiterate New York, as the federal census has just revealed.

There are 200,000 persons above the age of 21 in Manhattan and the Bronx who cannot read or write English. Of course, a number of these so-called "illiterates" are educated in their own language.

To counteract this, a "go-to-school" drive is being planned by the municipal board of education. "Illiteracy maps" of the city have been carefully prepared. These are large-scale and show a black dot for every illiterate person. The dots are thickest on the lower East Side, in Harlem and the Bronx.

WAS FIRST TO FIND ROOSEVELT'S GRAVE

RHINELANDER, Wis.—Albert J. Lytel of this city, formerly lieutenant of the 32nd division, has just received notice from the government that he is the recognized discoverer of the grave of Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, northeast of Chateau-Thierry. A photograph accompanied the recognition, showing Lieutenant Lytel with several other officials and enlisted men standing around the grave. The grave was discovered in the early part of August, 1918.

FRENCH PREMIERS ON PEACE MISSION

By the Associated Press

PARIS, July 27.—Premier Millerand, accompanied by Marshal Foch, Frederick Francois Marsal, Minister of Finance, and Philippe Bertholet, political director of the foreign office, left here this morning for Bologne, where they will discuss with Premier Lloyd George, the Russian soviet proposal for a conference between the allies and representatives of the Russian Soviet government.

Probability is expressed that M. Millerand will refuse to agree to the request of the Russian note for the surrender of General Wrangel, the anti-bolshevik leader in southern Russia, and that he will ask the London conference, if it is held.

TINIEST RAILROAD HAS BIG REVENUE

Western System Has 5.4 Miles and Is Run by One Man: Never Heard of Plumb Plan

SPOKANE, Wash.—Railroad general managers sometimes descend to manual labor long enough to whack a silver spike into the "last rail."

But O. R. Moore, general manager of the Spokane Valley and Northern railroad, switches cars, tamps ties and gives the engineebs highballs—no, not the kind you mean—as a regular thing.

The road is very nearly the smallest standard road in the United States. It is 5.4 miles long cost $500,000, and was built in 155 days, setting a record. Equipment: one engine, one boxcar, swiped from a Great Northern wreck, two signal posts, and one wide place in the road.

Passengers are allowed to ride from one end of the road to the other—in the caboose—for 30 cents.

Moore is ticket and freight agent, baggage master and conductor.

The road did $800,000 worth of business last year, however, and Moore isn't worrying about the I. C. 7-27-2nd.

C. or freight car shortages.

And as for the Plumb plan—

"Plumb? Who's he?" asks the versatile Mr. Moore.

TEN years ago you might have seen one or two automobiles waiting outside the station, when the weather was pleasant.

Today the square is crowded with them. And most of the cars you generally see there are moderate-price cars.

II

Anybody who tells you that owners of moderate-price cars are not interested in the quality of their tires has never met very many of them.

We come in contact with the small car owner every day and we have found that he is just as much interested as the big car owner.

There is one tire, at least, that makes no distinction between small cars and large cars so far as quality is concerned—the U. S. Tire.

Every U. S. Tire is just like every other in quality—the best its builders know how to build.

Whatever the size of your car, the service you get out of U. S. Tires is the same. It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that sets the standard to which U. S. tires are made.

IV

We feel the same way about it. That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

STATE HELPS TO PRESERVE ELK

Platt National Park Has Animals From Yellowstone Park.

YELLOSTONE PARK, Wyo., July 28.—Encouraging reports regarding the increase in native American game have been received by officials of Yellowstone National Park from many cities and states to which breeding animals from the famous park preserve were donated.

In an effort to repair the damage done by hunters, who have exterminated native animals in the more thickly populated sections, it has been the policy of the National Park service to send bison elk, bear, antelope and beaver to public parks and state preserves where they would be given favorable environment and a chance to multiply.

More elk have been shipped from Yellowstone since last season than any other kind of game. During the hard winter it was impossible to feed all the animals and to keep some of the elk from starving to death, donations were freely made.

Some Sent to Sulphur.

Elk have been sent recently to Minneapolis, Minn.; Kerville, Tex.; Pallasades Park, N. J., near New York City; Platt National Park, Sulphur, Okla.; St. Louis, Mo.; Altentown, Pa.; Sonora Experiment Station, Sonora, Tex., and Pirre, South Dakota.

Much ingenuity is exercised to trap the animals for shipment. In the case of elk, a trail of succulent hay is laid into a corral and when the elk have entered, the gate is closed by means of a rope, operated by a ranger hidden some distance away. For two days the animals are kept to accustom them to men and then are shipped in specially fitted express cars.

Bears forfeit their freedom in gratifying their weakness for sweets. A cage trap is arranged with honey or preserves inside. The bear doesn't hesitate, once he gets a sniff. Straight into the cage he goes, and the man secreted on top then pushes down the door. The cage must be lined with sheet-iron, otherwise Bruin would tear the sides to pieces with his sharp claws.

The industrious beaver is taken into camp in an ordinary trap. The dam is broken to expose the submerged entrance to the beaver

A $450,000 APARTMENT HOUSE NEXT

NEW YORK, July 28.—Residents of Manhattan Island, in their eternal fight for space, have perked up their ears at the announcement by a New York realty syndicate that it will build a $450,000 apartment house, whose distinguishing feature will be "disappearing beds". Officials of the syndicate are silent as to what form the "disappearing beds" will take during the daytime. They dismiss the matter by saying that "disappearing beds and many other labor saving devices will be installed."

Architects, however, have given their opinion on the proposed innovation.

The beauty of "disappearing beds," the architects say, is that the bed cannot disappear while the occupant is lying in it on his back, with his knees up and his mouth open. The architects made this statement to quiet the fears of many New York residents who had inquired as to whether the "disappearing beds" were similar to the old-fashioned folding bed, or contained any of the latter's cranky and uncertain tendencies.

The architects say that a "disappearing bed" is a bed at night and an oil painting of a Gordon setter or something like that in the day time; that it can be slipped under the bath room floor or tucked away behind the aquarium; or that it may be sunk into a trap door in the floor and an Oriental rug placed over it, so that the tell-tale cracks may not be seen.

The apartment house of the "disappearing beds," the syndicate announces, is to be built on West End avenue, Manhattan.

WHAT'S THE USE?

The present senatorial battle in Oklahoma is interesting, very interesting. It is interesting just as the yellow fever, or the small pox, or a cyclone, or an earthquake is interesting. But it is not enjoyable, not by any sort of means.

We are interested in this contest just as we have been interested in every political contest for the past twenty eight years. We can hardly remember the time when we did not enjoy a political shindig. It seemed to have been born in our blood. We can recall the days of the early nineties when we read the story of Garfield's political struggles, and looking at the pictures of the fierce haired statesmen of the ante bellum period, resolved that we, too, would work our way through college as Garfield did and become active in politics just as the long haired statesman of the long ago.

But we have learned a few things about politics that our early reading failed to teach us. We have learned the price that must be paid by anyone seeking to rise to eminence. We have learned that partisan politics in spite of its allurements is fierce as ten furies—terrible as hell. When a man announces for elective office he places the happiness and reputation of himself and family and relatives where their happiness and reputation may be destroyed in a day.

Just take a slant at Scott Ferris. Twelve months ago he was the idol of the Oklahoma Democracy. He hadn't announced for the senate then. He was beyond question the most popular man in the state. His public record was flawless. His private life was without a stain. He was serving his seventh term in congress and was conceded to be in line for the speakership whenever his party should regain control of congress. No man of any standing dared oppose him for re-election. No opponent had ever carried his own precinct. "We will write to Scott about it" had become a household term in Oklahoma. He had won the highest honor ever conferred on an Oklahoman when called to lead the fight for Democracy in the western states in 1916.

Then he decided to go higher. Yielding to the solicitation of friends he announced his candidacy for the United States senate, and straightway hell broke loose in Georgia. The most cruel and mendacious campaign ever waged against an Oklahoman has been waged against Ferris. The most artistic liars of the century have been placed on the payroll to slander Ferris by the yard. Editors who formerly eulogized Ferris in the warmest terms known to our English tongue have fallen for the call of the golden calf and are now villifying him in terms of unexampled savagery. Some of these editors are praising Carter and Hastings and McClintic and McKeown and at the same time are berating Ferris, who voted exactly as Carter and Hastings and McClintic and McKeown did on every essential question.

Just because Ferris voted to send a bill to one committee to have the pay of soldiers increased instead of sending the bill to another committee to have soldiers' pay increased, it has been charged from every stump in Oklahoma that Ferris voted against increasing the soldiers' pay. Thousands of honest citizens have fallen for this falsehood and will probably continue to believe it to the end of their natural lives. The men who originated this charge and the men now circulating it know that it is false—they are circulating it because it is false and because the truth will not answer their purpose. Besides they are not paid to tell the truth.

Yes, we have learned a lot about the inner workings of politics since we read the life of Garfield and studied the pictures of fierce haired ante bellum statesmen. We have learned that if a man values his reputation and cares for the happiness of his family, he will let politics severely alone. He may have had childhood's dream of ambition. But what's the use?

And Coolidge never got his inspiration to speak against reaction from reading the speeches of Senator Harding.

The enemy says that all the newspapers have been paid to fight Gore. Now we know why all the papers fought the Kaiser so hard.

Governor Coolidge says that we must reclaim the country from reaction. And we Democrats intend to do that very thing next November.

The peace loving citizens of America will be interested to know just what congress did to them on the eve of adjournment. In the army reorganization bill there is one beautiful little joker. That joker provides that any civilian may be jerked up before a military tribunal and punished for "contempt." This power of the military over the civil population was never before given to the military arm of the government. It is the longest step towards Prussianism ever taken by our government. The country has often wondered what the late unlamented congress did and the country is now finding out.

The American Legion Speaks

(In several public speeches Senator Gore is said to have referred to certain members of the American Legion as "Feather-legged heroes.")

Wild beasts there are of some low lupine breed
That shun the battlefield in fear and dread;
But when the darkness comes steal forth to feed
Upon the helpless dead.

So would you drag forth to the light of day,
And with your touch pollute my patriots true—
The sons of noble sires who wore the Gray.
Or else perchance the Blue.

You would murder with your vile abuse
The men who brought our victory to pass.
Adapting Samson's weapon to your use—
The jawbone of an ass.

Truly, the pen is mightier than the sword,
Yet just as truly Truth can never die,
And there are men and there are deeds, my lord,
That brand your words a lie.

Your words insult those khaki clad lads who stood
Beside my lost ones in that vale of death:
Yet you in sneering ask: "Can any good
Come out of Nazareth?"

Yea. Come and see! In Argonne Wood they died:
Picardy saw them break invasion's wave;
There fifty thousand stainless heroes lie
Within their stainless graves.

Yet you would blight the stars that courage won
Beneath the fire and on the shell-torn road:
With words achieve the plaudits of the Hun.
From out his dark abode.

My feet are bleeding and my breast is red.
My arms are empty—yet you will not cease
Your cruel clanders. Give me back my dead,
Or let them rest in peace.

State Press Comment

Shawnee News: And Tom Watson of Georgia is now arranging to stage a come-back into the democratic party.

Hobart Republican: Governor Cox has promised to include Texas in his swing around the circle. What is Texas listed in the doubtful column?

Tulsa Tribune: Meanwhile, President Eamon de Valera of the "Irish republic" continues to fight, bleed and die for his country in his comfortable New York hotel suite.

Shawnee News: Judge Jean Day, though now a millionaire oil man, does not seem to have forgotten the way Oklahoma lawyers have of manufacturing their own evidence, judging by recent developments.

Tulsa Tribune: Who said there were no opportunities any more? A young man entering the postal service can, after working faithfully 35 years, be retired on a pension of from $360 to $720 a year.

Ardmoreite: Senator Gore claimed credit for having saved one big zinc company $600,000 in taxes. But it is evident that some one else had to pay what the zinc company got out of paying.

Pittsburg County Guardian: Talk about politics being hot over the Gore-Ferris scrap in Oklahoma. Oh boy, just wait till the Georgia voters undertake to settle whether the state capital is to be kept at Atlanta or removed to Macon!

Ardmoreite: Senator Gore boasted of his vote against the food conservation act. This bill was designed to save such food as could be shipped to France for our boys in the armies and to consume at home such as could not be shipped. It resulted in taking to our boys good wholesome food and plenty of it. A vote against this bill was a direct stroke at the boys in the trenches.

Church News

Prayer Meeting

The midweek prayer meeting will be conducted this evening at the Christian church from 8:15 to 9:15. A study of the book of Hebrews is being made. This study occupies the remainder of the hour after the devotional session. Everyone welcome. Let us have a good turnout tonight. C. V. Dunn, Minister.

Presbyterian Prayer Meeting

Tonight at Eight o'clock at the First Presbyterian church the pastor will hold the last service before going away on a month's vacation. There were 57 at prayer meeting last Wednesday evening, but 12 of these are at Hollister, Missouri this week consequently a number of others will have to come to hold up our record. The pastor expects a good attendance and will try to have something good for those who attend.

Christian Endeavor's Picnic

The Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Picnic at Jack Fork last evening was a decided success. There we are enjoying the comforts of were thirty in attendance. The party left town, some in cars but most of them on one of the Bennett trucks, about six o'clock. Some of the young men who could not get off from work early enough to go with the crowd drove out later in time to get in on the frolic. The time was spent mostly in swimming by those who cared to participate.

The rest had delight in strolling up and down the woods enjoying the beauties of "God's Out of Doors." Just at sunset they all assembled where the cars and truck was parked and spread the picnic dinner, which was delicious and bountiful for all.

While there of course the party thought and talked no little about those C. E.'s who are at Hollister. They decided to send a message written on the top cover of one of the lunch boxes to the Hollister delegation. The message read as follows:

"To the Ada C. E.'s in Hollister Prison, Greeting:

We are at Jack Fork on a delightful picnic. Our sympathy goes out for those poor unfortunate C. E.'s who had to be sentenced to a ten day's exile in the roughs of the Ozarks. We are sorry indeed for you to have to spend these hot days in a "summer school" while home and C. E. picnics at Jack Fork and everything. But be good, we will take you back when your sentence is fully served."

This communication was signed by the following composing the picnic party. Florence Mooney, Berneice Rayburn, Jessie Cales, Hugh Bennett, Robt. Chaffin, Wm. H. McCollum, Mrs. R. B. Chaffin, Jno. Fleet, Winnie Cox, Alberta Chaffin, William Chaffin, Floyd Laird, Freeman Harrison, Alvin Tunnell, Geraldine Hale, Berneice Small, Wilma Chilcutt, Thelma Mooney, Lois Burden, Grace Mooney, Clare Goodman, Eddie Mae Horn, Kathleen Love, Mae Burdick, Mary Horton, Inez Love, Mae Burdick, B. Patterson and Dr. and Mrs. N. P. Patterson.

First Baptist Church
Tonight at the First Baptist church will be held the "unusual" prayer meeting. We have been having the "usual" prayer meeting but this is to be an "unusual" one. We hope to see a large crowd present. C. M. MORRIS.

Society

Life's sea of stormy billows, we must meet them everywhere. Pass right through them; do not tarry. Overcome the heaving tide; There's a sparkling gleam of sun-shine Waiting on the other side. —Wilcox.

Epworth League Social
Last evening the Epworth League of the Methodist church held a social in the church parlors and on the church lawn.

During the first part of the evening the young people spent the time in various amusements. Games were played, songs were sung and pleasures of various sorts indulged in.

The lawn was then lighted and all enjoyed playing in the cool freshness of the open air. After the games, the crowd was seated on the grass and several of the number gave readings for the entertainment of the evening.

Naturally the refreshment was last. It is customary in more than one thing to lead up to a climax. To say the least of this part of last evening's entertainment was not the least important. There was a superabundance of ice cream cones served to everyone. Some started to keep count of the number individually disposed of and lost count after reaching a certain point. Indeed, there was no allowance or "Hooverizing" in this case. Each one ate to his heart's content.

About forty young people were present. They dispersed at a common sense hour expressing their good will to the social department leader, Miss Catherine Taylor, and the president, Miss Ruby Gay.

A Lawn Party
Miss Ruby Lamb of North Oak avenue entertained a number of her classmates Wednesday evening with a lawn party. Many interesting games were played and delightful refreshments of fruit, salad, ice cream, cake and iced fruits were served. All report a splendid time.

Personal Mention

TRICOLETTE FROCK FOR COOLER DAYS

By Eloise

Many shops are holding sales in their dress departments now and the wise women are taking advantage of them. Dark blue and black georgettes, serges, tricotines, satins and taffetas are the materials of most of the sale frocks, which make them very attractive at this time of the year when one needs a dark dress. These street and afternoon frocks do very well for the cool days of late summer and the great majority of them will be just the thing for wear in the fall or even through the winter. Just now when everyone is chasing the dollar such sales mean a great saving.

This frock was seen at a reduced price sale in one of New York's exclusive dress shops. It is an exact copy of a French model and of unusual enough style to be good for more than one season. It is fashioned of navy blue tricotette combined with novelty striped fabric. The slender lines are characteristic of Gouvin, the Paris creator. The harem skirt is particularly graceful in tricotette frocks and is used here with good effect. Note the little roll collar and roll cuffs to match made of the striped material. Then there is a tiny gilet of tricotette to match the light stripes and a novel sash made of two narrow strips which has bows and streamers at either side. Such a frock would be a most worthwhile investment.

STATE BOARD ANNOUNCES TAX ASSESSMENTS THE SAME

Pack, add the syrup, garnishing with slices of lemon, cap and process for 15 minutes.

Gingered Watermelon Rind—To each pound of rind cut into 1-inch squares add 2 qts. of water and 1 oz. slacked lime. Let stand in lime water overnight. Next morning drain and let stand 1 to 2 hours in fresh cold water. Drain well and boil rapidly in strong ginger tea (1 oz. ginger to 1 qt. water) for 15 minutes. Drain, put into a 40 degree syrup made by using 1 pt. strained ginger tea with 1 qt. water and 1-2 lbs. sugar. Cool until tender and transparent (about 1 1/2 hours). After boiling a half hour add half a lemon sliced thin. Place in shallow pans to cool, covering the rind well covered with syrup. When cool pack, cap clamp and process for 15 minutes.

Okey, Okla.—Will give you recipe for cottage cheese dressing for salad?

Mayonnaise Dressing with Cottage Cheese

To a thick mayonnaise dressing made with the usual quantity of oil and eggs add half a cup of fine-grained cottage cheese and mix thoroughly. This dressing will keep for some time without separating.

Cottage Cheese Dressing

1-2 cup milk.
1-3 cup vinegar (not too strong).
1 egg.
1 cup soft cottage cheese.
1 cup sour cream, whipped.
1 teaspoon salt.
1-2 teaspoon paprika.
2 teaspoons flour.

1-2 teaspoons melted butter.
Method—Mix the dry ingredients together and cream them with the melted butter. Add the creamed mixture to the heated milk and stir until very thick. After the mixture has boiled, add vinegar slowly, stirring all the while. Cool slightly and add beaten egg.

Set Up "Horse Heaven."

WASHINGTON—An "old horses" home, and a "vacation farm" for horses are both to be found on the hospitable acres of L. C. Probert, a Washington newspaper man, at "Homeland Farm," Oliny, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Probert have for years been active members of the Washington Humane Society. When Mr. Probert bought a farm recently they realized that they had then the opportunity to put some of their good wishes for disabled horses into practice.

Accordingly Mr. Probert has made a standing offer to take care of any horses condemned to die, so they may have a little idea of "horse heaven" before they go, and to give other tired animals the "vacation" that many owners nowadays are granting their horses with their employees.

Born.

A baby girl made her first appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Smith of East 12th street yesterday morning.

Farewell Program At First Christian Church Last Night

Last evening the members of the First First Christian church gave a farewell program for Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Sears and families, who have been members of the Christian church of this city for more than eleven years.

Mr. Perkins has been head of the education department and Mr. Sears has been head of the history department in our state normal college for several years. Both men have worked in this institution since it was established and are well known in this district as great school men and Christian gentlemen. Mesdames Perkins and Sears have been very active workers in the women's organizations of the church and have helped to build up the religious work in Ada for many years and this has been greatly appreciated by all.

Mr. Perkins has been the teacher of the young people's Sunday school class for many years and leaves many young Christian friends who regret the leaving of Brother Perkins, but wish him godspeed in his new work.

Mr. Sears has also been a teacher in the Sunday school of the Bible class and has been able to see the results of his work as he leaves one of those members of his class to take his place as teacher in the Sunday school.

At the close of the program Bro. Chaney presented to Messrs. Sears and Perkins each a nice gold fountain pen as a token of appreciation and thanks from the church to them for the services which they have rendered to the church and the Lord's work while in Ada.

After the following program was rendered a nice social time was enjoyed by all and refreshments were served by the ladies. The Christian church regrets to give up these good people but wishes them the best of success in their new work as servants of the Lord.

Messrs. Perkins and Sears go to Enid, Okla., as instructors in Phillips University, the Christian university for the states of Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas. The following program was carried out with credit to all who took part:

Cattle Lower, Hogs Higher, Sheep Firm.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS, June 28, 1920.—Liberal receipts today weakened the cattle market, and the grass fat cattle sold lower. Fed steers were in moderate supply and sold at steady prices, top $16.75. Some Greenwood county, Kansas, steers brought $15.85. Hogs were in active demand with prices 15 to 25 cents higher. Lambs were strong, top $15.25 and sheep steady. Today's Receipts.

Today's receipts were 15,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs, and 6,500 sheep, compared with 15,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs and 9,000 sheep a year ago, and 11,500 cattle, 17,500 hogs and 15,000 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle.

Liberal receipts of cattle at all the principal western markets forced lower prices on all grades except for good thick fleshed fed and grass fat steers. Killers were fairly anxious for the better grades. A good many fed steers sold at $16 to $17.75, and yearlings $15 to $16.50. Some 13.18 pound Greenwood county, Kansas, steers brought $15.85 and others $14 to $15. A large bunch of Texas grassers on the native side sold at $12.25, and in the quarantine division at $9.50 to $12. Declines in most grass fat cattle are quoted at 25 cents. Cows and heifers were 15 to 25 cents lower. "Canners" were slow sale. Veal calves and bulls were steady. Stockers and Feeders.

Some of the best stockers and feeders sold at steady prices, but the plainer kinds were slow sale and lower. Some common stockers passed without bids.

Hogs.

Hog receipts were about the same a week ago, and the market was higher. The advance was quoted at 15 to 25 cents. Both shippers and packers were in the competition and paid up to $15.75. The bulk of the hogs brought $15.25 to $15.65. There was a fairly active demand for pigs.

Sheep and Lambs.

Native lambs sold up to $16.25, and fair quality Arizona lambs at $15. The per cent of cull was much the same as last week. Prices were quoted firm. Some 109 pound New Mexico wethers brought $9.15 and native ewes sold at $5 to $7. Generally steady.

Horses and Mules.

Light receipts of horses and mules sold at steady prices. Larger supplies would have developed a better demand. Receipts will continue small for some time.

CHARLES M. PIPKIN, Market Correspondent.

To the Hon. City Commissioners and Merchants of Ada:

We the Board of Auxiliary to the Chamber of Commerce protest the placing sign boards on our street corners. Surely, we should have civic pride, not to want to disgrace our beautiful city with unsightly sign boards.

Furthermore, we protest against the placing of bill boards within the city limits and ask our commissioners to have all such removed.

Signed.

Board of Auxiliary to Chamber of Commerce.

Five Minute Chats on Our Presidents

By JAMES MORGAN

(Copyright, 1920, by James Morgan.)

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

1857—Sept. 15, William Howard Taft born in Cincinnati.
1878—Graduated at Yale.
1887-90—Judge of the Superior Court.
1890-2—Solicitor General of the United States.
1892-1900—United States circuit judge.
1900-04—Commissioner in and governor of the Philippines.
1904-8—Secretary of war.
1908—Inaugurated twenty-sixth president, aged fifty-one.

WHEN Roosevelt and Taft rode up Pennsylvania avenue on March 4, 1909, it was the first time since Jackson and Van Buren had passed that way side by side, more than 70 years before, that a retiring president would not have preferred another seat mate and successor than the one whom the fortunes of politics had thrust upon him.

Roosevelt alone selected his successor.

Naturally, everyone assumed that we were to have a Roosevelt administration by another name, and it was expected in the campaign that the ex-president would not go farther away from the White House than Oyster Bay. Instead, he plunged into the depths of Africa.

The fate of William Howard Taft would be pathetic if he himself had not met it and borne it with a smile.

He was abler, more upright, more independent than some far more successful presidents. But by bent and training he was a judge, and the 1856—December 28, Woodrow Wilson born at Staunton, Va.

PROFESSOR IN POLITICS

1879—Graduated at Princeton.
1885—Married Ellen Louise Axson of Savannah, Ga.
1885-8—Associate professor at Bryn Mawr.
1888-90—Professor at Wesleyan university in Connecticut.
1890-1902—Professor at Princeton.
1902-10—President of Princeton.
1911-13—Governor of New Jersey.
1913—March 4, inaugurated twenty-seventh president, aged fifty-six.

NEITHER Woodrow Wilson nor his administration has yet passed into history, whose judgment on them it would be folly to try to foretell. Nevertheless, much of the record of the presidency is made up and closed, and may be summarized at least, although it is perhaps foolhardy to venture into the fitness of passions that blind men alike to the merits and demerits of almost every president while he remains the central figure of partisan strife. "A statesman is a politician who is dead," said Thomas B. Reed.

In this age of ours, when men are going to school to learn business and farming and all manner of vocations, it was natural that there should appear in the White House a man like Woodrow Wilson, who had learned politics in the classroom rather than in the wardroom. The eighth of our Virginia-born presidents—in reality he is not

Woodrow Wilson at 30.

White House is no place for a judge. As lawgiver and governor of Manilla, Taft had won the confidence of his oriental subjects, and rather than desert his post, before his task was finished, he sacrificed the dearest ambition of his life. In a year and a half Roosevelt had him in his cabinet as secretary of war—and, soon had him in his eye for the presidency.

Roosevelt had the weakness of his strength. He thought he was strong enough to make a president. But real presidents are born, not made.

The moment Roosevelt was gone, the standpatters, the reactionary forces, emerged from their seven and one-half years in the cyclone cellar. The moment the political broncho felt the tenderfoot on its back, it bucked, and threw Taft from the seat of leadership. The next thing the rank and file of Republicans knew, the party was slipping back into the old rut from which Roosevelt had jerked it when first he laid upon it his masterful hand.

But the people refused to go back. Eight months after Taft's inauguration, the election of 1909 sounded a clear warning of the disaster that overwhelmed the party in the congressional election of 1910, and which all but destroyed it in the presidential election of 1912.

According to a story that was told of Taft, a curious stranger asked a gatekeeper at the Union station in Washington where he would stand the best chance of seeing the president in the few spare hours that he had between trains. "Right where you are," was the reply. "He's always either taking a train or getting off of one."

Taft was the first president to draw the present salary of $75,000. Congress had also adopted, two years before he came in, the custom of allowing $25,000 yearly for the traveling expenses of the president, and he became the great presidential traveler, making a record of 150,000 miles in four years, as he went about the country appealing for reversal of the verdict against his administration. In vain he strove to turn back the tide, which only sported with him.

After having elected him by 1,200,000 plurality, the people parted with Taft more in sorrow than in anger. They did not question that he was a good president, but that is a secondary consideration. A president must be first of all a politician and a leader.

TERRITORY POLES MUST GIVE UP UNDER PLAN OF ENTENTE ALLIES

In order to save Poland the entente allies have proposed that an agreement shall be made between the Warsaw and Moscow governments for a neutral zone thirty-five miles broad covering the frontier marked out for Poland at the peace conference at Paris.

This frontier is far in the rear of the one marked out by the Poles for themselves, as the map shows. Marshal Pilsudski, over the protests of the British and the less vigorous warnings of the French, undertook to carry the frontier to the Dniester and Dvina rivers, on the ground that only this line would provide strategic safety.

The Polish army has now been driven back approximately half the distance between the two lines, and in order to save the state the government has agreed to retire to the old frontier, which will be protected by the neutral zone. The Russians also are reported to have accepted this solution.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD COSTS ENORMOUS SUM

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The cost of publishing the Congressional Record, the government publication recording daily everything that is said and done in Congress, as well as somethings outside, was $537,640 last year, practically the same as for 1918, but about $300,000 less than the 1917 cost. These figures were given recently by Russell O. Beene, accountant at the government printing office, in answer to an inquiry of representative Magee, of New York, as to the possible saving that would result from the discontinuance of the record. Mr. Beene gave the cost for 1917 as $801,790.88 and for 1918 as $537,640.

Cornelius Ford, the public printer, was asked for an explanation of the high figure in 1917, but confessed his ignorance unless it happened that Congress "did more talking" that year. Mr. Ford said that in 1917, congress was in session 250 days; in 1918, 307 days, and in 1919, 279 days.

The printed pages in the Record for these years were 652,511,964 in 1917; 563,672,587 in 1918; and 435,130,450 in 1919. The cost of paper has increased greatly within the past three years, but the use of a lighter and less expensive quality has helped reduce the aggregate cost of the paper used. For 1919, the paper cost was $130,000 as compared with $162,000 in 1918 and $300,000 in 1917.

Herodotus, father of history, spent years in travel before writing.

PRETTY BUMMERS ARE IN CUSTODY

Two 16-Year-Old Maids Taken From Car of Watermelons by Railroad Detectives in Ky.

Two Weeks Enough TERRE HAUTE.—In two weeks graduated life lost its allure for Frances Lewis, her husband, Fremont Lewis, told the judge here. "She found it uninteresting," said he, "and she up and left me." Fremont got his divorce.

SOMERSET, Ky.—Two girls, both 16 years old, were arrested here today by railroad detectives when found on a freight train. They gave their names as Nancy Elrod and Mae Smith, and their homes as Rossville, Ga. They were discovered in a car of watermelons and told the detectives that they had ridden in the car three days with melons as their only food.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—If people stayed at home there would be fewer divorces," says Judge W. S. Anderson here who has granted 7,000 divorces in seven years on the bench. "We need new divorce laws but what we need most is the education of folks to what marriage means."

Save Money—Put Goodyear Tires on Your Small Car

Avoid disappointment with tires made to be sold at sensationaly cheap prices by using Goodyear Tires built to deliver maximum mileage at minimum cost.

The high relative value built into Goodyear Tires of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 3 1/2- and 31 x 4-inch sizes, results from the application of Goodyear experience and care to their manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes.

Such facts explain why more cars, using these sizes, were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

If you drive a Ford, Chevrolet, Maxwell or Dort, take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy true Goodyear mileage and economy; equip your car with Goodyear Tires and Heavy Tourist Tubes at our nearest Service Station.

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear $2350
Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread,

30 x 3 1/2 Goodyear $2150
Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3 1/2 size $450 in waterproof bag.

Miss Wilma Wood will return to her home in Oklahoma City Friday.

A splendid picture program is to be given Friday night at 7:30 in the normal auditorium. This will be the last picture program of the term.

The Ancient and Benignant Order of the Red Rose will hold a business meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the reception room. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

Mrs. Egan, director of the normal cafeteria, stated this morning that she would probably close this place tomorrow afternoon, due to the fact that school will close tomorrow at noon. It is not yet decided what arrangements will be made to reopen the cafeteria for the fall and winter term. This announcement will be made later when she confers with the new president, Doctor Linscheid.

The training school closed yesterday and the teachers are making final reports of the work done during the term. The work has been very satisfactory in this department to all concerned and is a recently added feature to East Central.

Dr. M. L. Perkins was presented with a beautiful Masonic ring this morning at the assembly hour by the faculty and the students. Mr. Bray made the presentation address. Mrs. Perkins was remembered and was presented with a set of silver spoons.

The various classes in domestic science will hold an exhibit in the reception room this afternoon at 7:30. Later the classes will give a fashion show in the auditorium and the makers of individual gowns and dresses will wear them on the stage. All are invited to attend.

Saturday.

The boys' and girls' club of Pontotoc county will give a picnic on the normal campus Saturday. The affair is slated to last all day and splendid programs for the entertainments have been prepared. One of the features of this affair will be a big dinner and it is planned to serve 3,000 people on this date. Miss Anna Weaver Jones and Prof. Hugh Norris will conduct a series of athletic contests which promises to be the best, and the normal orchestra and glee club will be present.

Dr. Rolla G. Sears was presented with a beautiful gold watch this morning by the classes in commercial geography. Mr. Burkhardt made the presentation address at the assembly hour and related the numerous things that Doctor Sears has done in the past few years to make East Central one of the best. In conclusion it was stated that the school regretted very much to give up Doctor Sears and Doctor Perkins but would renew the fall and winter term with new energy and assist Doctor Linscheid in every way possible to make the school better than ever before.

Assembly.

The last assembly for this term was held this morning at 9 o'clock in the normal auditorium.

The normal orchestra opened the program with several musical numbers which were appreciated and brought liberal applause in the intermissions.

Following the musical program, Doctor Perkins made an address which will be the last for the term. He spoke very highly of the work that has been done during the summer term and expressed much regret that he is to leave East Central State normal and Ada.

He spoke very complimentary of Dr. A. Linscheid, the new president, and stated that he was sure Ada people would co-operate with the newly-chosen president. Doctor Linscheid is from Durant and is expected to arrive in this city tomorrow morning.

Dr. M. L. Perkins and Dr. Rolla G. Sears will remove to Enid and will be connected with Phillips university of that city. These men do not need any introduction to the heads of Oklahoma schools, as both have resided in this state for a number of years and are ranking first with the educators of the state.

Mr. Vern Robertson of Springfield, Mo., was present at the assembly and sang. The program rendered, which embodied four numbers of variations, were certainly appreciated as evidenced by a most liberal applause. Mr. Robertson thanked the faculty and student body for the courtesies and good attention given him while in course of the program and assured them that whenever the opportunity presented itself he would always speak well of East Central State normal. Miss Natalie Manville played the accompaniment.

MANY OPINIONS ON BEST BOOK

Bible and Shakespeare Lead in Library Association Questionnaire.

The question: "What book has helped you most?" as addressed by the New York City executive committee of the "Books for Everybody" movement of the American Library association to men and women prominent in public life, has brought forth replies which, aside from the anticipated general agreement on the Bible and Shakespeare, are stimulating in their range.

Clergymen declared for the Bible almost without exception, as did educators, such as Dr. John H. Finley, commissioner of education of New York state, who said that although his mother died when he was eleven years old, he had read the Bible through twice with her aid that he had read it to cover at least three times in mature life. A large body of opinion among business men in favor of the Bible is represented by the declaration of Jacob H. Schiff, financier, who said that the Mosaic Bible has influenced his life more than any other book.

Belasco Likes Shakespeare.

"The Bible and Shakespeare," said David Belasco, "contain the great poetry and the great truths." John Drew finds that out of the catholic experience of the theater Shakespeare emerges as the most determining book. Arthur Brisbane, journalist, said that a six-pence edition of Shakespeare, in smallest print and poorest paper, had been his only English book at a boyhood school in France, where none but he spoke a word of English. He read it over and over, picking out the fights and other incidents which appealed to him as a boy of fifteen.

On the expressed assumption that the Bible and Shakespeare were too obvious an influence on life and thought, a number of replies gave second choices. "Two books which exerted great influence over me in my youth," said Dr. Lyman Abbott, are "My Father's Young Christian," from which I derived much of my faith in the simplicity of Christianity, and "Foster's Essay on Decision of Character," which helped me to acquire the courage necessary to accept the responsibility for my own life." Next to the Bible, her mother's "Pilgrim's Progress" had the most profound effect on Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard of New York City. Carlyle's "Heroes and Hero Worship" and a little book of selections from Browning went home very powerfully to Chancellor Elmer E. Brown of New York University, at an age when he was most open to impressions.

Women's Opinions Vary.

Women in general, revealed more shades of opinion. The poems of Alfred Tennyson opened the door to romance and history and chivalry for Theodosia Garrison, who is Mrs. Lindley M. Garrison. A prominent woman lawyer of New York City still reads "Alice in Wonderland" to fortify herself for the prosecution of a case; she considers the court room scene of the trial of the Mad Hatter the finest piece of satire in literature. Mrs. Bernard E. Pollock, president of the National League of Girls clubs, has returned again and again to Emerson's essays and to Omar Khayyam. Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, a director of the League of Women Voters of New York City, thinks that Herbert Spencer and Emerson "licked her mind into shape." A prominent social worker gives first place to George Eliot's "The Mill on the Floss."

Hamilton Holt, editor of the Independent, thinks that "Les Misérables" is "more kinds of a great book than any other he has ever read." Among several men of note who declared themselves unable to answer the query was Thomas A. Edison, who found his reading too largely technical and one-sided to permit a satisfactory answer.

Wind Resistance.

The average man, walking briskly, travels at about 4 miles per hour. His body presents to the air a surface of about 6 feet in height to 1 foot in width, or about 6 square feet. Moving at 4 miles per hour he is traveling at 5.8 feet per second, and the resistance opposed to his forward motion by the air, assuming it to be still, is just about $\frac{1}{2}$ pound. In other words, he is continually pushing a $\frac{1}{2}$ pound resistance ahead of him as he walks.

If the same man walking 4 miles per hour were facing a gale blowing 25 miles per hour, the relative velocity of the wind would be 30 miles per hour, and the man would be walking against a pressure of over 26 pounds. This would be enough to make an appreciable difference in the ease of walking and he would readily notice it. —Motor for July.

Cotton Off Forty Points
By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 27th.—Wall Street offerings on January cotton were about 40 points under last night's close on the market here today. Liberal coverings developed at this level and the market had a rally of about 20 to 25 toward 1 o'clock.

TWENTY-ONE

Men, do you recall the time when you reached your twenty-first birthday? You remember the sort of strange feelings that were yours when you thought about yourself. It seemed that you were on the verge of a new era in your life's history, and you were.

Before reaching the twenty-one mark, you had visions that when you became that old you would be a man. It seemed like a long way off, too. But, before you could catch your senses, Mother Time had counted out twenty-one years of existence for you. Were you the man you had dreamed of but yesterday? Yes, you were a tower of strength in many ways, but you plainly saw wherein you were lacking. What to do? Well, if your reasoning was good, you made a firm resolve that you would strengthen the weak places and round your manhood to the full.

Then, when you reached twenty-one, you were a man legally. Whether or not you would have preferred to remain a minor, the fact according to law was that you were a man. Was there any shirking in your nature as you assumed the responsibility of manhood? Some such thought may have existed momentarily with your weaker nature, but when your better self asserted itself, didn't you feel a pride that at last you were a full-fledged man?

Wasn't it something to be proud of to be able to vote? Was it not worth invaluable sums to have the privilege of signing your name to any sort of legal document and of engaging in any sort of transaction at will? Of course you did turn against the instruction of your parents just to show your foolhardiness, but, at the same time the opportunity was yours to follow your own dictates.

Twenty-one brought its responsibilities that made you strong. If your manhood asserted itself, you faced the world defiant. You threw down the gauntlet to all forces that would hinder your success. You clenched your fists and tightened your muscles and began the wonderful new period of your life with lots of pep.

NO BAILING WIRE HERE, FARMERS STACK HAY

Bailing wire has become so scarce that Pontotoc county farmers are compelled to stack their hay in the field and let it remain there until wire is available.

The price of bailing wire, now $1.75 and $2.00 a bunch, has only increased from 50 to 75 cents on the bale and the farmers wouldn't care for that if they could get it.

The big strike in the steel plants during the winter probably caused the shortage, but anyhow the farmers will have to wait until they can get the wire before they can market their hay.

Prisoners Escape From Marshall Co. Jail Last Night

There was a jail delivery at Middletown last night and three prisoners making their escape from durance ville are now at large. Local officers were informed this morning of the escape of the jail birds and are on the lookout for suspicious characters. There is no available description of the fugitives other than that one of them is "a tough looker"—which is rather indefinite in so far as this section of the world is concerned.

LITTLE BREAD; TOO MUCH CAKE

The American People Spend
$8,000,000,000 Yearly
For Luxury.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—An average of $8,710,000,000 is spent annually by the people of the United States for "luxuries," according to a statement by Miss Edith Strauss, head of the women's activities division of the department of justice high cost of living campaign.

Miss Strauss estimates on this basis a per family expenditure of $348 per year or $7 a week for "luxuries."

The male population spends $2,110,000,000 on tobacco in its various forms. Of this sum, $800,000,000 is spent for cigarettes, a like sum for loose tobacco and snuff, and $510,000,000 for cigars.

Automobiles rank second in Miss Strauss' list of luxuries. Approximately $2,000,000,000 is expended each year for motor cars and their parts, she said.

Since the advent of prohibition more candy has been consumed than ever before in the nation's history. It was pointed out, the candy consuming public annually pays $1,000,000,000 for sweets.

Other items in what Miss Strauss terms the "luxury list" include chewing gum, for which $50,000,000 is spent annually, soft drinks $350,000,000, perfume and cosmetics $750,000,000, furs $300,000,000, clothing $1,500,000,000, toilet soaps $400,000,000, and organs, pianos and phonographs $250,000,000.

These statistics, Miss Strauss said, were collected by the treasury department.

"And don't forget this," she said. "The labor and capital employed in producing these luxuries might otherwise have been turned out necessities—clothes, fuel, shoes, houses, food. In other words the nation might have had more bread if it had less cake. And as is always the case, the dancer is paying the luxury consumer is paying a higher price for his necessities because he is abnormally consuming luxuries."

This encouraged me to keep on taking it and in two months I was able to eat a good square meal and digest it as good as anybody. Then it wasn't long until I got so I could go back to my work and at the time I had finished my last bottle, I found I had actually gained forty-four pounds in weight.

"To look at me today no one would ever take me to be the same man I was when I began taking Tanlac."

The above remarkable statement was made recently by John H. Packer, well-known electrical engineer of Liberty, Missouri.

JOHN H. PACKER, well-known electrical engineer, of Liberty, Mo., who says that to look at him today no one would ever take him to be the same man he was before Tanlac restored his health. Has gained forty-four pounds.

"For two years previous to the time I began taking Tanlac, I lived principally on a raw-egg diet. During this time I was laid up in the hospital for five months and practically no hope was held out for my recovery. I don't suppose any man had a worse case of stomach trouble than I did, in fact they said I could not live.

Tanlac did not seem to help me much at first, and I had almost made up my mind to give it up, but if I had given it up it would have been the mistake of my life. I stuck to it for a fair test and am thankful that I did for after finishing my fourth bottle, my appetite was better and I noticed myself improving.
